

Dear Partner, alumni and friends,

Hereby we would like to inform you about the Course „CRIME PREVENTION THROUGH CRIMINAL LAW & SECURITY STUDIES” & ADRIATIC MOOT COURT COMPETITION held in the Inter-University Center in Dubrovnik from 3 until 8 April 2017.

The course is open to interested participants from academia (undergraduate students in higher years of study, postgraduate students, doctoral candidates, junior researchers), practice (governmental institutions, courts, attorney offices, NGOs etc.), journalists and others. The working language is English; therefore proficiency in English is required.

The course format foresees the active involvement of participants through their participation in the moot court competition, as well as through the less formal discussions during the free time. Interested participants will have the possibility to present their own papers/PhD projects relevant to the topics before a competent panel of senior researchers and professionals. The number of participants will be limited to 40.

All participants are required to pay a 65€ course fee upon admission to the course via bank transfer. There are no additional fees to be paid. The fee includes the course venue costs, a welcome reception, a guided Dubrovnik sightseeing, high-speed Wi-Fi connection, use of IUC computers and printers, costs of materials distributed as well as other IUC facilities. The Faculty of Law, University of Zagreb will sponsor the costs of the selection process, academic materials, occasional snacks & drinks, certificates and rewards for winners in the moot court as well as best student presentation.

The participation/attendance certificate issued by the course director and IUC Dubrovnik is equivalent to 4 ECTS, also sponsored by the Faculty of Law, University of Zagreb. For covering travel and accommodation expenses, we strongly advise interested participants to contact their home institutions as well as other foundations that finance educational courses – we can provide interested participants with formal invitation letters if needed. The online application procedure will be open until the 1st March 2017. For further information visit the website of the Faculty of Law in Zagreb under www.pravo.unizg.hr/KP/crimeprevention and for additional questions please contact the Course coordinator Dr Aleksandar Marsavelski under aleksandar.marsavelski@pravo.hr.

Best regards,
Natasa (Vujinovic)
