

Ana Đanić Čeko, PhD, was born on 27 February 1985 in Našice where she finished elementary and secondary school. Faculty of Law J. J. Strossmayer University of Osijek she enrolled in July 2003 and she graduated in October 2008.

She completed Postgraduate doctoral study programme in Legal Sciences (Public Law and Public Administration) at the Faculty of Law University of Zagreb defending her doctoral dissertation entitled "Appeal in Administrative Dispute in Croatian and Comparative Law". As of November 30, 2016, she has been the Postdoctoral Fellow at the Chair of Administrative Law and in the academic title of Associate Professor; she was elected on October 23, 2018.

In 2012 she finished pedagogical-psychological and didactic-methodical education at Faculty of Teacher Education in Osijek. She was scientifically improving through ERASMUS (2012-2013) at the Faculty of Public Administration in Ljubljana. She participated in the bilateral Croatian-Slovenian research project „Varstvo človekovih pravic v upravnopravnih in sodnih postopkih“ (Zagreb and Kranj). She has participated as a researcher in the project DUNICOP, Osijek-Pecs (2007-2013). She participated in a project entitled “Transformation – New code of practice management of NATURA 2000 and protected areas“. Participated in a project entitled "Cooperation between public administrations in cross-border areas of Croatia and Hungary to provide better services to citizens (CATCH)" (Hungary-Croatia 2014-2020). As a project team coordinator of the Faculty of Law Osijek in a project "Providentia Studiorum Iuris" - Improving the quality of studying at law faculties in Croatia" (March 2019 - March 2022). She is appointed as a member of the Partnership Council as part of the project "Preparation of the Professional Development Strategy in Public Administration 2019-2023". Participates as a researcher in the SEELS project "The Legal Status and Protection of Internationally Displaced Persons, Refugees, Asylum Seekers and 'Invisible' Persons without IDs". She is appointed for coordinator and member of organizational committee of the project of the Faculty of Law Osijek “ZaPravo za pravo”. She is a member of the Institute of Public Administration and the Croatian Institute for Local Government and external associate of the Croatian Academy of Legal Sciences.